

ONE STEP AT A TIME.

The lantern throws its dim light only just far enough for one step. But as only one step at a time can be taken that little circle of light is large enough to walk in. It may seem to be slow progress, but it is sure progress, nevertheless.

People who are sick with lung disease cannot be blamed for the desire to get well quick. But even on the road to health we can only take one step at a time.

Sufferers from lung "trouble" who have been cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery testify that with each day's use of the medicine the progress to health is marked. The cough lessens, the hemorrhage stops, the body gains in flesh and the strength grows measurably. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures obstinate coughs, bronchitis, bleeding lungs, emaciation and other diseases which if neglected or unskillfully treated terminate fatally in consumption.

"In 1900 my husband had a severe cough and also neuralgia," writes Mrs. Bettie E. Payne, of Kiel, Okla. "For nearly three years his cough was so bad he could not lie down at night. He got no relief from the doctors we employed, so he purchased two bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and took a tablespoonful every two hours. After the first four doses we could see that his cough was better, and he rested fairly well that night. The doctor said it was consumption—if it was, the two bottles of Golden Medical Discovery cured him, nothing else did. We thank Dr. Pierce for what his medicines have done for us, and we can recommend them and feel that we are recommending something that will cure, if used according to directions. I have recommended them to three of my friends, and with good results."

Can anyone possibly doubt the presidential qualifications of Vice President Fairbanks, now that he has been threatened by a crank?

It is to be hoped that the offer be politely declined. The very

The president has once more flown in the face of public opinion by appointing Assistant Secretary of State Loomis a special ambassador to receive Paul Jones' body and charging him with the delicate task of investigating American diplomatic posts in Europe.
Reviewing in the kindest possible terms, Mr. Loomis' conduct as minister to Venezuela, Secretary Taft said, "But in the very great satisfaction which we find in his (Loomis) complete exculpation from all charges of dishonesty we cannot be blind to the fact that his failure to hold himself utterly aloof from any participation in plans for investment and explanation have possibly lent color to the asper-sions upon his character. I sincerely trust that his bitter experience in this case makes it unnecessary further to point the moral that one who occupies the position of minister of the United States cannot afford in any country to which he is credited, in which business enterprises must be more or less affected by government favor and concession, to make personal investments of any sort or leave the slightest doubt as to the absence of all personal interests in any matter which he may bring before the government to which he is accredited." In the light of Secretary Taft's criticism, the president can hardly expect to escape severe criticism for the new Loomis appointment not only from his political opponents but even from his friends.

Doing Their Duty.

Learning the Duty of the Kidneys

To filter the blood is the kidney's Duty.

When they fail to do this they are sick. Backache and many kidney ills follow.

Urinary trouble, diabetes, Doan's Kidney Pills cure them all.
C. L. Stewart, employed in the plow-works, at Longview, Tex., says: Since I started to use Doan's Kidney Pills I have felt better than for years. Backache has troubled me off and on for a long time but I did not think it came from my kidneys, for my work is hard on the back and stopping continually I thought would naturally cause my back to ache, but when it began to bother me every morning and my rest was disturbed at night and the passages of the kidney secretions became so frequent, I began to realize that my kidneys were affected. I used remedies and doctored here and there, but found no positive relief until I got Doan's Kidney Pills.
The first box brought me great relief and I continued the use of this remedy until restored to good health.

No man is big enough to be president of the United States without a competent cabinet, and President Roosevelt may find this out by sad experience. When Secretary Root and Attorney General Knox were members of the cabinet they restrained the president on many occasions when his im-pulseiveness and warmheartedness would have led him to commit indiscretions. Both men exercised a wholesome influence over the president. They were big men and he appreciated that fact and was often guided by their judgment against his own desires, although Mr. Roosevelt was able to assure each of them, when he left the cabinet, that he never had occasion to regret having taken his advice.
Had Root or Knox been a member of the Roosevelt cabinet when the Morton case came up to the president for decision, the president would have never made the mistake of forbidding that Mr. Morton be called into court "to show cause" as the lawyers call it, to prove his innocence, as a layman would express it. If Mr. Morton was as stainless as the president believed him to be, and he may have been, he could easily have demonstrated that fact to the court and its exoneration would have been generally accepted. The president's attempted vindication of his friend and cabinet officer has not been generally accepted and it has resulted, perhaps in a great injustice to Morton by preventing his proving his innocence before the proper tribunal. Moreover, the president has thus established the precedent of prosecuting a corporation and permitting the officials responsible for the acts of such corporation to go free. Such a precedent, as former Attorney General Harmon well shows, must make a mockery of all anti-railroad and anti-trust law.

The president has determined

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

them a note explaining that he
